k. The Logistics Office technical library has been established.

3. During the balance of fiscal year 1954 the Logistics Office anticipates the accomplishment of those objectives as indicated in (enclosure B). It is anticipated that these objectives will be reviewed on a quarterly basis during fiscal year 1954 to determine what progress has been made, what new objectives should be added, and to publish revised summaries.

4. The successful completion of those projects and/or programs as indicated in (enclosure A) and paragraph 2 above, indicates that continual progress has been made during the past nine (9) months toward placing the Logistics Office on a sound management basis. It is apparent that continued application of sound leadership and practical guidance will result in the accomplishment of those objectives listed in (enclosure B), during the last nine (9) months of fiscal year 1954.

5. It should be noted that during the first quarter, eleven (11) projects and/or programs were completed and are now in operation.
